■ Weissbräu Schwendl Brewery

In 1935 Michael and Therese Schwendl decided to start a very small wheat beer brewery in the tiny village of Tacherting-Schalchen. The village is so small there is only one sign along the road identifying it. They started up with an 80 liter Wash Kettel. The word of their tasty wheat beers got out.

Now two generations later, Toni has taken over the brewery. Using open fermentation and krausening to naturally start the second bottle fermentation and carbonation they have kept up the family business at its highest standards. Once you start drinking their wheat beers it is very hard to stop..

■ Tasting Notes

Schwendl Pale Weisse 5.2%abv

A traditional bottle fermented wheat beer with 67% wheat malt and the remainder being barley malt. A full-bodied beer with fruit and spice aroma, a nose of bananas, melon, nutmeg and clove. A perfect beer for breakfast or with Weisswurt.
